Fast Five

1. The lady next door was a newsance.
2. The hotel was too small to acomodate the large party.
3. They lived in a friendly comunatey.
4. Year 5 frequentle got all of their spelllings correct.
5. They were asked to leave imediatley.

Fast Five Answers

1. The lady next door was a nuisance.
2. The hotel was too small to accommodate the large party.
3. They lived in a friendly community.
4. Year 5 frequently got all of their spelllings correct.
5. They were asked to leave immediately.

Can I write a discussion text?

Writing a discussion text

Remember the structure:

Introduction

Reasons for (expanded with evidence)

Reasons against (expanded with evidence)

Conclusion

Plan

Write all the reasons for and all the reasons against the argument as notes.

Expand each idea with evidence.

Put them in number order to help structure your work.

Model Texts

Use the previous model texts as a good guide of what your work should look like. Magpie any phrases that you feel would suit your arguments.

Word Bank

Useful sentence starters for a discussion text

However…	Firstly…	Research suggests…	Consequently…
Although...	Finally…	Studies show…	Therefore…
On the other hand…	Furthermore…	It is well known that…	For this reason…
On the contrary…	Also…	Statistics show that…	As a result of this…
In contrast…	In addition to this…	It is common knowledge that…	