The Enchanted Forest

Use your year group SC list to continue writing the story.

In a secret part of the world, there was a forest. It is covered by a thick fog that no one on the outside can see or walk through. Only children who have been invited can enter through the invisible gates.

The children who already lived there were a peaceful group. They enjoyed using dry, brown logs to create their shelters and collecting sticks to make fires so they could keep warm.

One day, whilst two children were walking along the outskirts of the mysterious forest, they heard a loud noise. Bang! They heard the gates rattling. Zoom! A huge rock whizzed past them. They whipped their heads around, in the direction of the gates. Someone was trying to get through them…
