

Adverbs

An adverb is something that tells you where, why or how something is done. Many adverbs end in -ly but not all of them. Similarly, not all words which end in -ly are adverbs.

Create a table and sort the following words into adverbs and not adverbs.

- | | |
|-----------|----------------|
| - cat | - sadly |
| - angrily | - friendly |
| - the | - cruelly |
| - lonely | - bully |
| - ugly | - mysteriously |
| - well | - happily |

For example:

Adverbs	Not adverbs
Sadly	Cat

Look at the sentences below. Rewrite these sentences and underline the adverb in each one.

- 1) He smiled cautiously.
- 2) She frowned angrily.
- 3) He walked to school quickly.
- 4) Carefully, she looked for her coat.
- 5) Thankfully, it would be his turn soon.

Complete the sentences below by adding in your own adverbs.

- 1) She ran _____ down the road.
- 2) He wandered _____ home.
- 3) She wrapped her brother's presents _____.
- 4) They _____ approached the haunted house.
- 5) The cats chased each other _____.
- 6) The whole school _____ waited for the Dojo scores to be announced.
- 7) She yawned _____ as she woke up at 4am.
- 8) I _____ brushed the knots out of my hair.