

RED

Can I identify and use indirect speech?

Speech	Direct or indirect
William asked if he could have a turn on the slide.
"It's my turn next, " Shiya shouted.
Dad said that the children should stop arguing.
Kylie mentioned that the swings were free.
"I love the park," squealed Emir.
Mum told the children that it was time to go home.

Change the direct speech in the sentences to indirect speech.

"We must work together!" declared Alexander.

"If we are late, we might miss the show," stated my sister anxiously.

My Mum said, "Don't worry, there is plenty of time to get there.

Write a sentence about the picture. Include indirect speech.

YELLOW

Can I identify and use indirect speech?

Speech	Direct or indirect
Nervously, William asked if he could have a turn on the slide.
"It's my turn next," Shiya shouted as she pushed past William.
"Stop pushing in. You always do that!" Jacob called angrily.
Dad said that the children should stop arguing and just enjoy playing together.
Kylie mentioned that the swings were free so
"I love the park," squealed Emir as he toddled towards the swings.

Change the indirect speech in the sentences to direct speech.

Alexander declared that we must work together.

My sister stated anxiously that if we were late, we might miss the show,

Mum reassured her not to worry because there was plenty of time to get there.

Write a sentence about the picture. Include indirect speech.

GREEN

Can I identify and use indirect speech?

Speech	Direct or indirect
Nervously, William asked if he could have a turn on the slide as his sister played in the sandpit.
"It's my turn next," Shiya shouted as she pushed roughly past William.
Dad called out that the children should stop arguing and just enjoy playing together.
Kylie mentioned that the swings were free so maybe they should go on them instead of arguing about the slide.
"I love the park," squealed Emir as he toddled towards the swings happily.

Change the indirect speech in the sentences to direct speech and the direct to indirect

"Can we have ice creams, Mum?" pleaded Sophia as soon as she heard the ice cream van coming

My sister stated anxiously that if we were late, we might miss the show,

"I will gently check Fudge's ears," the vet said when we took my poorly dog to see her.

Write a sentence about the picture. Include direct and indirect speech.