

Choose one of the challenges below to complete

Red Challenge

Can I organise text?

The diary entry below is in a bit of a muddle. Can you rewrite these paragraphs in chronological order (time order). The time adverbials have been highlighted to help you.

On my way home, I stopped to buy some new toys for the children. I got them a rocking horse and some new dolls. This was a special treat as they had been so well behaved all week.

At the end of the day, I wrote a note to remind myself to get the gardener over to tend to the flowerbeds as it was supposed to be sunny all week.

After breakfast, a horse-drawn carriage drove me over to my friend Emily's house. We drank tea in her sunny garden and then ate a delicious lunch that her servants had prepared. We had cheese and ham sandwiches with some grapes on the side.

Today was a lovely day. First, I woke up to the smell of eggs and bacon as the servants had already been up cooking for hours. I got up, put on my favourite purple skirt and petticoat and checked on the children, who were happily playing with their nanny.

When I got back, the nanny had taken them to the park so I got to enjoy some peace and quiet in my own garden. It stayed sunny for quite a few more hours, just enough to allow me to finish the book I had been reading.

Yellow Challenge

Can I organise text?

The diary entry below is in a bit of a muddle. Find all of the adverbials of time in the diary entry. Once you have found these, use the adverbials of time to help you rewrite the diary in chronological order (time order).

At the end of the day, I wrote a note to remind myself to get the gardener over to tend to the flowerbeds as it was supposed to be sunny all week.

On my way home, I stopped to buy some new toys for the children. I got them a rocking horse and some new dolls. This was a special treat as they had been so well behaved all week.

After breakfast, a horse-drawn carriage drove me over to my friend Emily's house. We drank tea in her sunny garden and then ate a delicious lunch that her servants had prepared. We had cheese and ham sandwiches with some grapes on the side.

When I got back, the nanny had taken them to the park so I got to enjoy some peace and quiet in my own garden. It stayed sunny for quite a few more hours, just enough to allow me to finish the book I had been reading.

Today was a lovely day. First, I woke up to the smell of eggs and bacon as the servants had already been up cooking for hours. I got up, put on my favourite purple skirt and petticoat and checked on the children, who were happily playing with their nanny.

Green Challenge

Can I organise text?

The diary entry below is in a bit of a muddle. Find all of the adverbials of time in the diary entry. Once you have found these, use the adverbials of time to help you rewrite the diary in chronological order (time order). Once you have rewritten the diary entry, replace some of the adverbials of time with your own ideas (use the bank of adverbials of time on the teaching slides to help you).

At the end of the day, I wrote a note to remind myself to get the gardener over to tend to the flowerbeds as it was supposed to be sunny all week.

On my way home, I stopped to buy some new toys for the children. I got them a rocking horse and some new dolls. This was a special treat as they had been so well behaved all week.

After breakfast, a horse-drawn carriage drove me over to my friend Emily's house. We drank tea in her sunny garden and then ate a delicious lunch that her servants had prepared. We had cheese and ham sandwiches with some grapes on the side.

When I got back, the nanny had taken them to the park so I got to enjoy some peace and quiet in my own garden. It stayed sunny for quite a few more hours, just enough to allow me to finish the book I had been reading.

Today was a lovely day. First, I woke up to the smell of eggs and bacon as the servants had already been up cooking for hours. I got up, put on my favourite purple skirt and petticoat and checked on the children, who were happily playing with their nanny.