

Red Challenge:

Complete the sentences about these pictures using informal tone and language.

This means you can use:

- Contractions (e.g. I've, won't, we'll)
- A more 'chatty' tone that sounds like you're talking to a friend
- Abbreviations (e.g. TV, ASAP)
- More casual language (e.g. Thanks instead of thank-you)

The rollercoaster was so fast

_____.

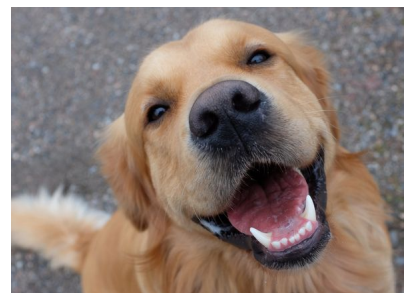

I couldn't believe my eyes when the waiter _____

_____.

My dog Chip was _____

_____.

Then, dad jumped into the pool and

_____.

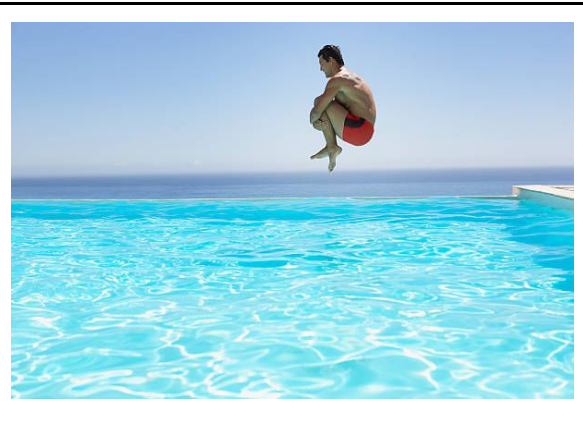

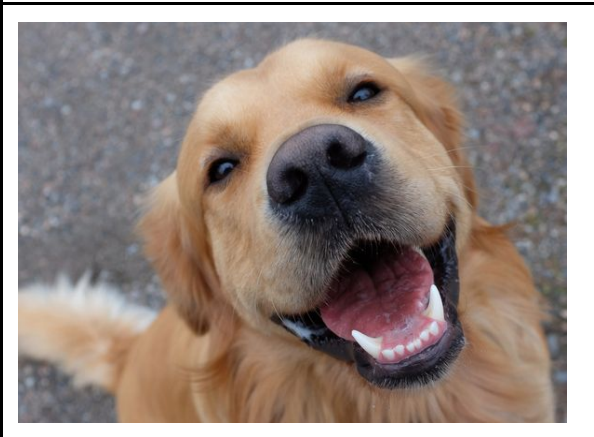

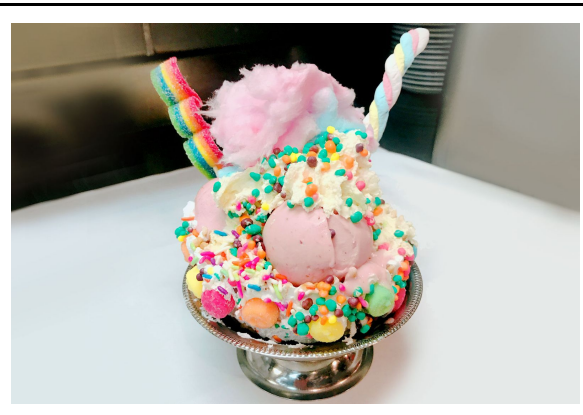

Yellow Challenge:

Write one sentence about each of these pictures using informal tone and language.

This means you can use:

- Contractions (e.g. I've, won't, we'll)
- A more 'chatty' tone that sounds like you're talking to a friend
- Abbreviations (e.g. TV, ASAP)
- More casual language (e.g. Thanks instead of thank-you)

Green Challenge:

Write one sentence about each of these pictures using informal tone and language.

This means you can use:

- Contractions (e.g. I've, won't, we'll)
- A more 'chatty' tone that sounds like you're talking to a friend
- Abbreviations (e.g. TV, ASAP)
- More casual language (e.g. Thanks instead of thank-you)

Use one of the following conjunctions in your sentence to add detail:

because but so or if while after before

Remember that conjunctions often go in the middle of a sentence to connect two ideas.

