

Red Challenge ANSWERS

Can I understand the importance of a synagogue to a Jew?

Copy and complete:

A synagogue is a Jew's place of worship. Not all synagogues look the same outside.

The items that are found in every synagogue are a tallit, bimah, an ark, Torah, yad and separate seating areas.

There are lots of reasons why synagogues are important to Jews, such as it is a space for them to pray, become closer to other Jews, attend services and to learn.

Word bank
same	learn	Jews
closer	worship	yad

Yellow Challenge ANSWERS

Can I understand the importance of a synagogue to a Jew?

Copy and complete:

A synagogue is a Jew's place of worship. Not all synagogues look similar but every synagogue has the same features inside. The items that are found in every synagogue are a tallit, bimah, an ark, Torah, yad and separate seating areas. There are lots of reasons why synagogues are important to Jews, such as it is a space for them to pray, become closer to other Jews, attend services and to study. Jews do not have to go to a synagogue to practise their religion, they can also do this at home.

Word bank
Jews	similar	closer	features
yad	study	worship	home

Green Challenge ANSWERS

Can I understand the importance of a synagogue to a Jew?

Copy and complete:

A synagogue is a Jew's place of worship. Not all synagogues look similar but every synagogue has the same features inside. The items that are found in every synagogue are a tallit, bimah, an ark, Torah, yad and separate seating areas. There are lots of reasons why synagogues are important to Jews, such as it is a space for them to pray, become closer to other Jews, attend services and to study. Jews do not have to go to a synagogue to practise their religion, they can also do this at home.