

Red

City life	Life along the river bank
Children go to school.	Surrounding land is used for farming crops.
Buildings and skyscrapers are found here.	People build their houses out of mud and plants.
People go to hospitals and doctors.	Tribes mainly live there.
Most people have access to technology.	The people who live here depend on the rainforest for shelter, food and medicine.
	People have to rebuild their houses every year.
	Children have to help parents work.
	People here do not go to hospitals or doctors.
	There is no technology.

Yellow - fill in the gaps of these sentences and sort them into the table.

City life	Life along the river bank
Children go to school .	Surrounding land is used for farming crops .
Buildings and skyscrapers are found here.	People build their houses out of mud and plants .
People go to hospitals and doctors .	Tribes mainly live there.
Most people have access to technology, such as mobile phones and computers .	The people who live here depend on the rainforest for shelter, food and medicine .
	People have to rebuild their houses every year .
	Children have to help parents work .
	People here do not go to hospitals or doctors .
	There is no technology .

Green - Look at the above examples for facts that could have been used.