Co-ordinating Conjunctions

These are joining words which can be used to join together two clauses in a sentence.

However, the clauses need to make sense on their own!

Co-ordinating Conjunctions

I had a terrible cold. I still went to school.

These are two separate clauses which alone, make sense. However, a co-ordinating conjunction can be added in the middle...

I had a terrible cold but I still went to school.

Here are some examples...

He tried to climb the tree but he slipped and fell.

George made a pizza and he put pepperoni on it.

Can you add a co-ordinating conjunction to this sentence?

Finley walked to the park _____ he found a lost toy.

Claire created a card _____ she couldn't find any glue.

Using the FANBOYS can you finish this sentence?

Jeremy found a magic key ...
