

The following are possible answers...

Red: Look at the Stained glass pictures on the slides. Write a few sentences saying what is common about the stained glass.

They're colourful. The majority of them tell a religious story. They use similar shapes and patterns.

Yellow: Look at the stained glass windows on the slides and write a few sentences saying ... What is common about the stained glass? What scenes if any are depicted? Are there any religious symbols?

They're colourful. The majority of them tell a religious story. They use similar shapes and patterns. Symbols from the Jewish religion are included in stained glass windows in synagogues. Stories from the holy land are shown in Jewish synagogues. In Christian churches, the windows show stories from the bible. Hindu stories are often shown on the stained glass windows.

Green: Look at the stained glass windows on the slides and write a few sentences saying ... What is common about the stained glass? What scenes if any are depicted? Are there any religious symbols? Can you see a sequence of events? Is there a pattern to the design?

They're colourful. The majority of them tell a religious story. They use similar shapes and patterns. Symbols from the Jewish religion are included in stained glass windows in synagogues. Stories from the holy land are shown in Jewish synagogues. In Christian churches, the windows show stories from the bible. Hindu stories are often shown on the stained glass windows. In Islamic mosques, the stained glass is mainly patterns and shapes and they don't depict a story.