

Red

Rewrite the sentence with the correct coordinating conjunction:

1. They were poor, and often suffered great hardship.

(and, but)

2. He overslept himself and thus missed the train.

(and, but)

3. He tried hard, but he did not succeed.

(but, and, so)

4. I remembered to bring the robot but didn't remember the batteries.

(but, and, so)

5. I forgot the robot's batteries so I had to borrow a pair.

(but, and, so)

6. I was tired so I went to bed.

(and, so, but)

7. It was getting dark but we could still see.

(but, and, so)

Yellow

Complete the sentence by adding another main clause:

1. She ate too much pizza so
2. The old lady went to the stove and
3. She wanted to finish her homework so
4. Let's go to the cinema and
5. The boy wanted a new coat so
6. You can touch it but
7. He won the race but

Green

When writing your own sentences, can you use a comma before the co-ordinating conjunction. This will be a good challenge for you.

Example: She ate too much pizza, but she still wanted more.

Complete the sentence with a main clause:

1. but I can't play it.
2. and bumped my head.
3.so mum said we shouldn't go.

Now write your own sentences using the co-ordinating conjunctions from FANBOYS