Today you are going to write an instruction text on how to survive in an earthquake.

Make sure you look at Geography Lesson 3 for this week to understand the steps you should take to survive an earthquake.

Watch this video again if you need a reminder:

Remember to use the skills we have learnt this week:

- Time adverbials
- Imperative (bossy) verbs
- Key spelling words

Your activity

Red: The steps have been given for you. Choose from the bank of time adverbials and adjectives to create more detailed instructions.

Yellow: The first steps have been given for you. Use time adverbials and adjectives to write more detailed sentences for the first steps. Then use the information you have learnt to write the rest of the instruction text. If you need help, re-watch the video on the slides.

Green: Create your own set of instructions using the information from the video. If you get stuck, watch the video again or take some ideas from the yellow activity.
