

Red - Using the word bank, add the prepositions to the sentences to make them make sense. The spaces where the prepositions are missing have been underlined.

1. "Dinner's ready!" said dad as he placed the pizza on the table.
2. Daniel always goes to breakfast club in school at 8am.
3. You have a doctor's appointment at 4 o'clock.
4. Lucy hid in the wardrobe when they played hide and seek.
5. Ben finally found his missing toy; it was under his bed the whole time.
6. They held a party outside to celebrate VE Day.
7. Courtney had to squeeze through the crowd of people to get to her friends.
8. Micheala, my best friend, lives in a house across the road from mine.

Word bank:

outside

inside

at across on in through under

Yellow

Activity 1: The sentences are missing prepositions. Rewrite the sentences with the preposition to make the sentence make sense. Use the word bank to help you.

1. "Dinner's ready!" said dad as he placed the pizza on the table.
2. Daniel always goes to breakfast club in school at 8am.
3. You have a doctor's appointment at 4 o'clock.
4. Lucy hid in the wardrobe when they played hide and seek.
5. Ben finally found his missing toy; it was under his bed the whole time.
6. They held a party outside to celebrate VE Day.
7. Courtney had to squeeze through the crowd of people to get to her friends.
8. Micheala, my best friend, lives in a house across the road from mine.

Word bank:

outside	on inside	in
at	through across	under

Activity 2 - write 3 sentences with prepositions to describe this picture.

Possible prepositions to discuss:

Monkey behind his shoulder
Hand on the ball
Sign above the shopfront
Bird in the cage
Man inside of the booth

Green

Activity 1 - add a prepositional phrase from below to each of the sentences - don't forget the comma!

Through the forest

After the race

Under the waves

Through the blue sky

In the tree branches

In summer

Underneath the stairs

Due to the heavy snow

1. Underneath the stairs, mum stored the vacuum cleaner.
2. After the race, Jessie got a gold medal for coming first.
3. Due to the heavy snow, school was closed for the day.
4. Through the blue sky, planes flew taking passengers on holiday.
5. Under the waves, a school of dolphins swam.
6. Through the forest, the elephants marched like soldiers.
7. In summer, we are going on holiday.
8. In the tree branches, the birds were singing merrily.

Activity 2 - Write a paragraph to describe this picture using as many prepositions as you can. If you are struggling to think of any, look at the word banks from red or yellow activities.

Possible prepositions to discuss:

Monkey behind his shoulder

Hand on the ball

Sign above the shopfront

Bird in the cage

Man inside of the booth

