

Red - Using the word bank, add the prepositions to the sentences to make them make sense. The spaces where the prepositions are missing have been underlined.

1. "Dinner's ready!" said dad as he placed the pizza _____ the table.
2. Daniel always goes to breakfast club _____ school at 8am.
3. You have a doctor's appointment _____ 4 o'clock.
4. Lucy hid _____ the wardrobe when they played hide and seek.
5. Ben finally found his missing toy; it was _____ his bed the whole time.
6. They held a party _____ to celebrate VE Day.
7. Courtney had to squeeze _____ the crowd of people to get to her friends.
8. Micheala, my best friend, lives in a house _____ the road from mine.

Word bank:

outside

on inside

in

at

through across

under

Yellow

Activity 1: The sentences are missing prepositions. Rewrite the sentences with the preposition to make the sentence make sense. Use the word bank to help you.

1. "Dinner's ready!" said dad as he placed the pizza the table.
2. Daniel always goes to breakfast club school at 8am.
3. You have a doctor's appointment 4 o'clock.
4. Lucy hid the wardrobe when they played hide and seek.
5. Ben finally found his missing toy; it was his bed the whole time.
6. They held a party to celebrate VE Day.
7. Courtney had to squeeze the crowd of people to get to her friends.
8. Micheala, my best friend, lives in a house the road from mine.

	Word bank:
outside		on inside		in
at		through across		under

Activity 2 - write 3 sentences with prepositions to describe this picture.

Green

Activity 1 - add a prepositional phrase from below to each of the sentences - don't forget the comma!

Through the forest

After the race

Under the waves

Through the blue sky

In the tree branches

In summer

Underneath the stairs

Due to the heavy snow

1. _____ mum stored the vacuum cleaner.
2. _____ Jessie got a gold medal for coming first.
3. _____ school was closed for the day.
4. _____ planes flew taking passengers on holiday.
5. _____ a school of dolphins swam.
6. _____ the elephants marched like soldiers.
7. _____ we are going on holiday.
8. _____ the birds were singing merrily.

Activity 2 - Write a paragraph to describe this picture using as many prepositions as you can. If you are struggling to think of any, look at the word banks from red or yellow activities.

