

Red - connect the two clauses with a subordinating conjunction so the sentences make sense. Use the examples in the diagram to help you complete the sentences.

- 1) The cold wind blew violently _____ the storm hit the town.
- 2) The man snored on his sofa _____ a long day at work.
- 3) I hate Sundays _____ I have to do my chores.
- 4) The sky suddenly turned black _____ the sun disappeared.
- 5) I'd prefer to go tomorrow night _____ the weather will be better.
- 6) Florence jumped high in the air _____ she tried to catch the ball.
- 7) The arrogant man sneered _____ he got the answer wrong.
- 8) It is very important to exercise daily _____ it keeps you healthy.

Yellow - Choose subordinating conjunctions and complete the sentences.

- 1) The cold wind blew violently _____
- 2) The man snored on his sofa _____
- 3) I hate Sundays _____
- 4) The sky suddenly turned black _____
- 5) I'd prefer to go tomorrow night _____
- 6) Florence jumped high in the air _____
- 7) The arrogant man sneered _____
- 8) It is very important to exercise daily _____

Green - Using the pictures for inspiration, write your own sentences using subordinating conjunctions.

