

Red answers: The last part of the paragraph will be personal to them so there is not a right or wrong answer.

Christian art has been created for thousands of years. Art is important to Christians because it helped those people who could not read to understand the stories from the Bible. It is also used by artists as a way to express their faith and beliefs. Certain pieces of art have been created to make the viewers think more deeply about religion.

My favourite Christian piece of artwork that I have seen today is the _____ because...

Yellow answers: An example of a paragraph that your child may have written is below. The last part of the paragraph will be personal to them so there is not a right or wrong answer.

Christian art has been created for thousands of years. Art is important to Christians because it helped those people who could not read to understand the stories from the Bible. It is also used by artists as a way to express their faith and beliefs. Certain pieces of art have been created to make the viewers think more deeply about religion.

My favourite Christian piece of artwork that I have seen today is the _____ because...

Green: Write your paragraph answering the questions in as much detail as you can.

An example of a paragraph that your child may have written is below. The last part of the paragraph will be personal to them so there is not a right or wrong answer.

Christian art has been created for thousands of years. Art is important to Christians because it helped those people who could not read to understand the stories from the Bible. It is also used by artists as a way to express their faith and beliefs. Certain pieces of art have been created to make the viewers think more deeply about religion.

My favourite Christian piece of artwork that I have seen today is the _____ because...