

Red - Fact file template - sentences fill in missing gaps from the word bank.
Refer back to the lesson slides to remind you of information.

What is a hurricane?	A hurricane is a spinning storm with very high winds.
When was it?	Hurricane Katrina hit in August 2005.
Where was affected by it?	Hurricane Katrina hit the Caribbean and southern USA states but mostly affected the US state Louisiana.
What speed was Hurricane Katrina travelling at?	Hurricane Katrina was travelling at 120mph.
What did people do to stay safe?	To stay safe, people evacuated the area.
How did it affect the environment?	The effect on the environment was catastrophic. It caused flooding, loss of life and people were displaced from their homes.

Louisiana	evacuated the area	flooding	people were displaced from their homes.	catastrophic
August 2005	spinning storm with very high winds	the Caribbean and southern USA states	120mph	loss of life

Yellow - Use the key words to complete this fact file. Refer back to the lesson slides to remind you of information.

What is a hurricane?	A hurricane is a spinning storm with very high winds.
When was it?	Hurricane Katrina hit in August 2005.
Where was affected by it?	Hurricane Katrina hit the Caribbean and southern USA states but mostly affected the US state Louisiana.
What speed was Hurricane Katrina travelling at?	Hurricane Katrina was travelling at 120mph.
What did people do to stay safe?	To stay safe, people evacuated the area.
How did it affect the environment?	The effect on the environment was catastrophic. It caused flooding, loss of life and people were displaced from their homes.

Louisiana	evacuated the area	flooding	people were displaced from their homes.	catastrophic
August 2005	spinning storm with very high winds	the Caribbean and southern USA states	120mph	loss of life

Green - Complete this fact file using the prompting questions. Refer back to the lesson slides to remind you of information.

What is a hurricane?	A hurricane is a spinning storm with very high winds.
When was it?	Hurricane Katrina hit in August 2005.
Where was affected by it?	Hurricane Katrina hit the Caribbean and southern USA states but mostly affected the US state Louisiana.
What speed was Hurricane Katrina travelling at?	Hurricane Katrina was travelling at 120mph.
What did people do to stay safe?	To stay safe, people evacuated the area.
How did it affect the environment?	The effect on the environment was catastrophic. It caused flooding, loss of life and people were displaced from their homes.