

Red - Sort these sentences into a venn diagram.

UK

- Located in Europe
- Is made up of the countries: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- All in one time zone.
- Has a population of 66.65 million people.
- Has a large population density.
- Has one climate.

US

- Located in North America
- Is made up of 50 states.
- Land borders Canada and Mexico.
- Different time zones depending on where you are.
- Has a population of 382.2 million people.
- Has a smaller population density.
- Has regional climates.
- At risk of extreme weather and natural disasters.

Both

- Have warm summers and cold winters.
- Rains throughout the year.

Yellow - sort the sentences into a venn diagram comparing the US and the UK.

UK

- Located in Europe
- Is made up of the countries: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- All in one time zone.
- Has a population of 66.65 million people.
- Has a large population density.
- Has one climate.
- Grows the crops: wheat, barley, oats, potatoes, sugar beet, vegetables, oilseed rape.

US

- Located in North America
- Is made up of 50 states.
- Land borders Canada and Mexico.
- Different time zones depending on where you are.
- Has a population of 382.2 million people.
- Has a smaller population density.
- Has regional climates.
- At risk of extreme weather and natural disasters.
- Grows the crops: corn, soya beans, wheat, alfalfa, cotton, hay.

Both

- Located in the northern hemisphere - summer in July, winter in December.
- Have daylight saving hours.
- Have warm summers and cold winters.
- Rains throughout the year.

Green - Create a venn diagram to compare the US and the UK. Refer back to the lesson slides to remind yourself of similarities and differences.

Example of facts that can be used in their venn diagram.

UK

- Located in Europe
- Is made up of the countries: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- All in one time zone.
- Has a population of 66.65 million people.
- Has a large population density.
- Has one climate.
- Grows the crops: wheat, barley, oats, potatoes, sugar beet, vegetables, oilseed rape.

US

- Located in North America
- Is made up of 50 states.
- Land borders Canada and Mexico.
- Different time zones depending on where you are.
- Has a population of 382.2 million people.
- Has a smaller population density.
- Has regional climates.
- At risk of extreme weather and natural disasters.
- Grows the crops: corn, soya beans, wheat, alfalfa, cotton, hay.

Both

- Located in the northern hemisphere - summer in July, winter in December.
- Have daylight saving hours.
- Have warm summers and cold winters.
- Rains throughout the year.