

Red Challenge

Write the complete sentences thinking carefully about which parts make sense together.

Tom was good at apologising...

...as soon as he bit into his peanut butter sandwich.

That evening, Mum would not let Tom watch any television...

...until he tidied up.

Tom knew that his mum would be cross...

...after Tom had left for school.

Mum took a deep breath...

...whenever he made a mistake.

Tom remembered how much he loved his mum...

...when she discovered he had left a mess.

Mum found the note...

...before Tom walked through the door.

Yellow Challenge

Write the complete sentences thinking carefully about which parts make sense together.

Tom was good at apologising...

...after Tom had left for school.

Tom knew that his mum
would be cross...

...whenever he made a mistake.

Mum took a deep breath...

...when she discovered he
had left a mess.

Mum found the note...

...before Tom walked through the door.

Now try two sentences of your own with adverbials of time. There is a support sheet if you need it.

Green Challenge

Tom was good at apologising...

...as soon as he bit into his peanut butter sandwich.

That evening, Mum would not let Tom watch any television...

...until he tidied up.

Tom knew that his mum
would be cross...

...after Tom had left for school.

Mum took a deep breath...

...whenever he made a mistake.

Tom remembered how much he loved his mum...

...when she discovered he
had left a mess.

Mum found the note...

...before Tom walked through
the door.

Now try three sentences of your own with adverbials of time.