

Myths and misconceptions

Christianity

Misconception - All Christians believe the same

All _____ believe that _____ is divine and _____ in a _____. Christianity is divided into groups called _____. The main two denominations are _____ and _____. One main difference is that Catholic churches are _____ and Protestant churches are very _____.

Misconception - Christianity is anti-science

Some Christians have a strong opinion _____ science. Many Christians _____ science, they highly value the _____ of science. _____ is a famous Christian scientist who _____.

Judaism

Misconception - Hanukkah is the Jewish Christmas

Sometimes Jews make _____ a substitute for _____ so children do not feel left out. The festival of Hanukkah only happens in the _____ and there are sometimes _____. It is not the same day every year, but it is always in _____ or _____.

Misconception - Jewish people keep Kosher because it is healthier

Jews keep _____ for one of two reasons: they are fulfilling the commandments in the _____ or they do it to identify themselves as part of their _____.

Misconception - The Old Testament is the Jewish Bible

Jews follow the teachings of the Talmud and Tanakh, which are made up of the _____, Nevi'im and K'tuvim. Many of these books are in the _____, but the Old Testament is only made up of parts.

Islam

Misconception - Muslim women have no rights

Many countries have cultures where _____ are automatically assumed to lead. _____ as a religion preaches _____ of the sexes. Many _____ women with great accomplishments.

Misconception - Muslims worship a different god

People think _____ is a specific name for an _____ god. It really just means god in Arabic. Islam is an Abrahamic religion _____ believe Allah is the _____ God.

Misconception - Islam doesn't mix with other religions _____ is an Abrahamic religion, which is the same as Judaism and Christianity. All three share many _____ including _____ figures and _____ beliefs. Muslims are required to believe _____ is a divine prophet.

Misconception - All Muslims are Arabs

Out of 1.9 billion _____ over 60% are from South and _____ Asia, these are not Arab countries. The majority of the Arab countries are in _____ and _____.

Misconception - Muslims starve for an entire month every year _____ is a month where Muslims take part in charitable and _____ activities. Muslims do _____ from sunrise to _____ in order to appreciate their blessings. They only do this during _____ hours, and usually have a big _____ at sunset.