Red Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

- 1. The three little pigs had their own special houses.
- 2. I can't decide what to have at the restaurant,
- 3. My brother thought the movie was enjoyable.
- 4. My favourite soup flavour is chicken and vegetable.
- 5. The resident rode his bicycle to work.
- 6. The letter was essential to the school.
- 7. Jane sensibly crossed the road with her mum.
- 8. Ben felt terrible for breaking his sister's doll.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

- 1. Lily had an incredible birthday party.
- 2. The class really enjoyed the edible pastry
- 3. The jumper was evidence for the police.
- 4. The president was not invited to the meeting.

Yellow Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

- 1. After the bad weather, John needed artificial grass.
- 2. Kali purchased her tickets at a substantial discount.
- 3. Her favourite restaurant was in New York.
- 4. Asking for homework on the last day is not reasonable.
- 5. Alice got a partial refund for her holiday.
- 6. "You are the most dependable of the class," the teacher said to Lucy.
- 7. The movie was full of action and drama, it was incredible.
- 8. The parliament was deciding on an important new law.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected.

- 1. The expectant mother counted the days until her due date.
- 2. "Your group must draw a vegetable," said the teacher.
- 3. The doctor said there was evidence of a broken bone.
- 4. Ruth was asked to accompany her mum to the supermarket sensibly.

Green Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

- 1. The earthquake meant many of the homes were not saveable.
- 2. He found the movie short, but very watchable.
- 3. Richard gave him an expectant stare, one eyebrow raised waiting.
- 4. The natural environment in Peru was one of excellence.
- 5. The MightyLock3000 claimed to be the Britain's first indestructible safe.
- 6. The restaurant we visited for Christmas was marvellous.
- 7. The music had no rhythm, but it was bearable.
- 8. Before they could begin the project, the team needed essential explanation.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected.

- 1. For many professions it is beneficial to have good communication skills.
- 2. Parliament frequently meet to recommend new laws.
- 3. It is not reasonable to interfere with a fellow student's learning opportunities.
- 4. The man looked incredibly familiar, as though we had met in a distant memory.