

Red Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

1. The three little pigs had their own spetial houses.
2. I can't decide what to have at the restaurent.
3. My brother thought the movie was enjoyible.
4. My favourite soup flavour is chicken and vegetible.
5. The residant rode his bicycle to work.
6. The letter was essencial to the school.
7. Jane sensably crossed the road with her mum.
8. Ben felt terrable for breaking his sister's doll.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

1. Lily had an incredable birthday party.
2. The class really enjoyed the edable pastry
3. The jumper was evidance for the police.
4. The presidant was not invited to the meeting.

Yellow Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

1. After the bad weather, John needed artefitial grass.
2. Kali purchased her tickets at a substancial discount.
3. Her favourite restaurent was in New York.
4. Asking for homework on the last day is not reasonable.
5. Alice got a parcial refund for her holiday.
6. "You are the most dependible of the class," the teacher said to Lucy.
7. The movie was full of action and drama, it was incredable.
8. The parliamant was deciding on an important new law.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected.

1. The expectent mother counted the days until her due date.
2. "Your group must draw a vegetible," said the teacher.
3. The doctor said there was evidance of a broken bone.
4. Ruth was asked to accompany her mum to the supermarket sensably.

Green Challenge

Re-write the sentences with the circled words corrected. Remember to carefully copy the rest of the words.

1. The earthquake meant many of the homes were not savible.
2. He found the movie short, but very watchible.
3. Richard gave him an expectent stare, one eyebrow raised waiting.
4. The natural environment in Peru was one of excellance.
5. The MightyLock3000 claimed to be the world's first indestructable safe.
6. The restaurent we visited for Christmas was marvellous.
7. The music had no rhythm, but it was bearible.
8. Before they could begin the project, the team needed essencial explanation.

Now try spotting the incorrect word yourself. Re-write these sentences with the spelling mistakes corrected.

1. For many professions it is benefital to have good communication skills.
2. Parliamant frequently meet to recommend new laws.
3. It is not reasonable to interfere with a fellow student's learning opportunities.
4. The man looked incredibly familiar, as though we had met in a distant memory.