Write a passage detailing Stanley Yelnats finding the treasure at the end of Holes. Include Who, What, When, Where and Why.

Yesterday morning, at Camp Green Lake (Texas), a young boy called Stanley Yelnats found a large cache of treasure. When asked why he had dug the treasure up, he claimed that it was because it belonged to his no-good-dirty-rotten-pig-stealing-great-great-grandfather.

Green

Write a passage detailing Stanley Yelnats finding the treasure at the end of Holes. Include Who, What, When, Where and Why. Also try to include HOW in your passage, explaining how the events transpired.

Yesterday morning, at Camp Green Lake (Texas), a young boy called Stanley Yelnats found a large cache of treasure. When asked why he had dug the treasure up, he claimed that it was because it belonged to his no-good-dirty-rotten-pig-stealing-great-great-grandfather. The treasure was buried around one mile from the camp and Stanley was able to find it by digging into the side of a hole he had previously dug.
