

Using the information in the video and slides, write a non-chronological report about the differences between life in China, Russia and the U.K.

Include information about the differences in size, population and climate that these countries have.

Research further differences using the internet and include these.