

Red - Write a description for one character. Try to include show not tell.

Tom paced the floor. He couldn't believe what he had seen. As beads of sweat began to trickle down the back of his dusty hoodie, he came to the horrifying realisation that he was not alone. He leapt almost out of his skin as the door began to open.

Yellow - Write a description of two characters with different personalities. You can use the names and personalities I have used.

Georgia glared at Tom. She was in complete disbelief. How could someone be such a baby just because the world was ending? Tom felt the disdain Georgia had for him and cringed. It wasn't his fault he was like this! Nobody had ever really noticed him before, what was he supposed to do now that he was the centre of attention?

Green - Write a description of two characters using show not tell and inserting them into a setting.

As Tom ran into the already fragile looking house, he risked a glance over his shoulder. Although he knew it could have meant certain death, he had to know that Georgia was still with him. He might be a coward, but in the crumbling world that had quickly become their home, she was the closest thing he had to a friend. She was there, eyes bright with determination. There was no way she was going to let herself succumb to the nothingness beneath the pavement crumbling around her.
