Can I write a story?

Today we are going to use all the skills we have learnt this week and build them into a complete story.

The powerpoint today will give you resources and ideas. You should use your work on setting, character and dialogue to create your story. You will be following your plan from yesterday's lesson.

Points to consider - Setting

You need to let the reader know, by what you write, exactly where you are. Add lots of detail, think about using powerful adjectives and noun phrases.

Remember to tell, in plenty of detail, how you got to the new world

There are some adjective mats on the next slides to give you ideas.

Plot

There needs to be some kind of problem that needs to be overcome.

For example:

- a) You need to get home
- b) You need to find an object
- c) Someone needs rescuing

Ending

The reader needs to know that the story has come to an end. Try not to just use the words `the end` or `they had a party`. Think carefully. Could you leave it open as to what might have happened?
